5. Eva & The Oyster Bar, Coconut Grove

The two-for-one sister spots are cornerstones of Coconut Grove's new open-air shopping and dining center, CocoWalk. Caribbean-inspired The Oyster Bar centers around bar bites simply dubbed snacks. Indulge in the daily selection of oysters on the half-shell or conch salad with Peruvian crackers paired alongside playful spiked snow cones and twists on tropical cocktails. At neighboring Eva, chef and restaurateur Michael Beltran and executive chef Ashley Moncada serve up Mediterranean-style dips and breads, as well as dishes like whole snapper wrapped in grape leaves and oyster spanakopita, in the modern space anchored by a marble-topped main bar with Parthenon-inspired stone columns.
